Controlador de IDE Maestro de Bus PCIAGP Accelerated Graphics PortEl paquete del tablero de sistema contiene los siguientes. I am attempting to swap out a 1.6 gig Intel Processor and max out the motherboard with a 2.8 gig Intel 533 FSB processor. Or will my MB not take this processor. According to the manual, it can. I will have to switch back the processor to 1.6 gig if you need the bios date, but its a Rev.It is a Prescott core CPU whereas what you need is a Northwood version. Know anyone that can use a brand new, boxed Intel P4 2.8gig 533mhz FSB Prescott CPU. I have not. Before I go out and order one, can anyone confirm this I assume the 512md L2 cache makes them all Northwoods If you have an account, sign in now to post with your account.Paste as plain text instead Display as a link instead Clear editor Upload or insert images from URL. Este chipset es algo polemico ya que segun Intel VIA no tiene licencia para usar el bus del Pentium4. Segun VIA tienen todo el derecho ya que cuando adquirieron a S3 esta empresa tenia dicha licencia.

Por esta razon los chipsets VIA para Pentium 4 no son muy populares, ya que el tema esta en los juzgados y los fabricantes de placas base tampoco quieren exponerse a la venganza de Intel en caso de usar este chipset en sus productos me refiero a una venganza comercial, es decir que Intel les retrase pedidos, les suba el precio de sus productos, etc. Bueno el caso es que DFI si se ha arriesgado y nos presenta su placa basada en el P4X400. Lo curioso es que esta placa no tiene soporte oficial de memoria DDR400, unica soporta los tres bancos llenos con DDR333. Tambien tiene soporte para AGP8x, FSB 400 o 533Mhz, etc. DFI PE21EC La placa es bastante sencilla y no incorpora ningun extra, ni RAID ni tarjeta de red.Lo probamos en un Core i710510U O que es lo que si tiene.
