Hala Afu 1.0 out of 5 stars Didnt get rid of wrinkles out when it was working. I used it for several minutes and ran it up and down the same area and my wrinkled shirts appearance did not change at all. It was a waste of time ordering and using this product.I got this for my brother and I absolutely hate it for the following reasons It's very heavy.

You will receive a workout if you have to steam an item that's rather wrinkled. The steam button and operating plates get rather hot after you use the machine for a while. The attachments don't work, they leave creases, and they fall off. The steamer spits out water. It also doesn't stand up, you have place it sideways on a surface when you need to readjust your clothes. The steamer it self is questionable. In my opinion, it doesn't steam well enough. You're better off ironing if you have a wrinkled cotton item. I'm going to throw this one away and replace it with a Rowenta or Shark one. We hate ironing, and to be honest, we're not good at it, so a good steamer is a must. I wanted to compare steamers. Since I had a Shark one before, I purchased a Rowenta for myself and this one for my brother. He tends to break things easy, so I thought the price and function would suit him, but the machine is terrible. He's a college student, so he doesn't mind the weight or getting his fingers a little burnt, still. I recommend folks research and invest in another product.Last month Ive checked that 1yr warranty is still valid, so I decided to give it a try. Ive contacted amazon customer service and was given direct Conair customer service contact. They replied to my email that I have to call so I did. So I spent quite a lot of time on hold and then connected to customer service representative. They asked serial number, my name, last name, adress, phone, email. Just basic info, but it took a while to spell everything correctly. After that I was told that in order to get a new steamer I have to send them my old one and pay for shipping and I have to agree to to so. I was quite surprised, beacause shipping to Phoenix.AZ going to cost almost the same as a new steamer, but whatever, I agreed. And then I was told that they dont have this steamer right now and they will ship new one as soon as its gonna be available.

As I can see it was available on amazon all this time, and its been 23 and no answer. Ive got case number, but I guess its better to save my time and not to call them again. Overall I liked this steamer when it worked, but as i read other comments other people have the same issue.Simple fix

Use a 10ml medicine syringe that you can pick up for free at any local pharmacy ask the pharmacist for one fill it up with water, remove the water reservoir and place the syringe into the rubber hole that sucks up the water from the reservoir, turn the steamer on and while the trigger is pulled force water into the pump with the syringe. No need to go too fast so you don't damage the pump. It should take only 5 to 10 seconds to push it through. Voila! It's fixed! Having worked in retail and styling before, I know how to use a steamer. One of my favorite fashion bloggers was raving about this item and I purchased it for a special event that included travel. I kept my gown hanging but still had some spots to touch up when I arrived at my destination. This product just spit out distilled water as recommended on my garment and didn't take out a single wrinkle! The recommended remover at the hardware store wasn't cutting it and smelled awful. Instead of buying a wallpaper steamer I tried my Conair and it worked great. Why I recommend this product lightweight heats up fast easy to refill ample cord length I'm just wondering what other home projects this great gadget will help me with in the future. Cuando me llego la verdad no cabia de emocion pero ya al usarlo los resultados no fueron los esperados, para empezar es pesada, luego tengo que pasarla varias veces y veo de nada a casi nada se le quitan las arrugas a la ropa. La verdad me canso antes de poder ver si la ropa termina planchada por las veces que tengo que pasarlo y al final termino planchandola con la plancha regular. Lo hubiera devuelto pero se me paso el plazo para hacerlo. Sorry, we failed to record your vote.

I wanted to avoid using an iron since it is a delicate material. I followed the directions and at first put it on the low setting. But when that didn't do anything, I switched to the high setting. Still nothing. I was really surprised when no wrinkles whatsoever came out, even after about five minutes of steam. I ended up returning it. Before buying I also read reviews on other websites and they suggested using Distilled water rather than tap water. The tap water allows minerals to build up within the steamer and stop it from working. I bought my steamer over a year ago and a large distilled water container and am using the same water container today. See more Reviewed by ebec ebec Written by a walmart.ca customer. I also used it to freshen my sofa and chair. It worked really well. I used to have a much more expensive steamer but found it was awkward to use on drapes etc. This one is handy especially since I am in a wheelchair now. The only drawback is that I had to stop and fill the reservoir a few times. See more Reviewed by MsConfused MsConfused Written by a walmart.ca customer. Works great, holds a decent amount of water and not too annoying at least there is no base to carry around. I think the bad reviews are because they have turned the appliance on but not turned ON the steam function, it is basically a lock button so you can stop steaming walk away then flip the lock off and its good to go no waiting and the steam is available. March 5, 2017 I was really unhappy with this product. Its also a bit of a pain to snap in and out. 2. It simply does not get hot enough. I had to press down on the clothes like you would an iron and even then I found it made more wrinkles than it eliminates. It would take multiple passes over the same area and for tougher wrinkles just didnt work at all 3. Despite its small reservoir, its on the heavy side for a hand steamer. 4. The shape is akward to store and set down between uses. Pros 1. It does heat up very quickly. 2. I liked the button to stop and start the seam so you arent wasting it when you set it down. This one works almost as well as a professional steamer. Dear CallieL. Thank you for your feedback and comments on our product. We're having technical issues, but we'll be back in a flash. Done. IMPRESSIVE RESULTS In our Lab evaluations, it quickly dewrinkled cotton, wool, silk, and linen without dripping or spitting. And with two temperature settings, it's easy to pick the correct heat level for any type of fabric. ERGONOMIC DESIGN Other handheld options can sometimes be bulky to hold, but not this. Our pros like that the large water tank curves inward, creating the perfect spot for your hand so you won't need to take a break midsteam. TOTAL VERSATILITY You can use it to freshen curtains, pillows, and even your bed. Simply run the steamer over your mattress's fabric to kill dust mites on the surface, then do a few passes with a vacuum. If a Member has multiple Program Credit Cards they cannot be linked to the same Triangle Rewards Account. A Member can request the issuance of additional Triangle Rewards Cards that have the same account number as that Member's Triangle Rewards Account. Collecting electronic Canadian Tire Money eCTM can be collected when you purchase Eligible Merchandise see below at participating Canadian Tire stores or online at canadiantire.ca or such other web site as may be designated by Canadian Tire from time to time.To collect eCTM you must present a Triangle Rewards Card or use a Cardless Method described below. You can also collect eCTM on that portion of a purchase charged to a Program Credit Card.

The Program Credit Card must be linked to a Triangle Rewards Account at the time the purchase is made in order to collect eCTM.The amount of eCTM collected on fuel purchases depends on the number of litres purchased. A minimum fuel purchase may be required before eCTM can be collected. The rate of collection may vary from time to time and by location and by type of tender used for payment so check at your local Canadian Tire gas bar. You can also collect eCTM on purchases that you make at other merchants that are charged to a Program Credit Card. The rate at which eCTM can be collected may vary from time to time and by location and is subject to change by Canadian Tire without notice. In addition, you may collect eCTM at a different rate if you pay with a Program Credit Card than you would if you use a Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method. Purchases made in a foreign currency with a Program Credit Card are first converted into Canadian currency as set out in the cardmember agreement prior to calculating the amount of eCTM that you have collected. If you use a Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method, it must be swiped or scanned or your phone number provided, as the case may be, before you make your purchase. When shopping online at canadiantire.ca or other website as designated by Canadian Tire, you must enter your Triangle Rewards Account number at check out to collect eCTM. Members are also eligible to collect bonus eCTM, or to collect eCTM at a promotional rate offered from time to time on the purchase of select items, upon the occurrence of certain events or as part of a promotion or offer, but unless otherwise indicated, bonus eCTM or eCTM awarded at a promotional rate is awarded only once for a transaction. You cannot use a Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method together with a Program Credit Card.

If you charge a purchase to a Program Credit Card, you will only earn eCTM at the applicable Program Credit Card rate then in effect, even if you also present your Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method. However, if you redeem eCTM to pay for part of a transaction and pay for the balance of the transaction with a Program Credit Card that is linked to a different Triangle Rewards Account than the account from which the redemption is occurring, all eCTM collected in respect of that transaction will be credited to the Triangle Rewards Account from which redemption is occurring. You will not be able to collect eCTM on that portion of a transaction in respect of which you redeemed eCTM. However, we may, from time to time and at our discretion, have special offers or promotions that would allow you to collect eCTM on that portion of a transaction in respect of which you redeemed eCTM. If you use more than one Program Credit Card to make a purchase e.g. split the cost between two or more cards, all eCTM collected on that purchase will be credited only to the Triangle Rewards Account linked to the first Program Credit Card that is presented. If you make payment using a Program Credit Card in combination with some other form of tender, only that portion of the purchase charged to the Program Credit Card will earn eCTM at the then applicable Program Credit Card rate. That portion of the purchases made with the other form of tender may be eligible to earn eCTM at a different rate. Delays may occur in recording eCTM to a Triangle Rewards Account. Redeeming electronic Canadian Tire Money eCTM can only be redeemed for merchandise including applicable taxes at participating Canadian Tire stores or at other locations designated by Canadian Tire. To redeem your eCTM you must present your Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method or Program Credit Card to the cashier with your purchase.

Please note that in some Canadian Tire stores it may not be possible to simply provide your phone number when redeeming eCTM; presentation of your Triangle Rewards Card or Program Credit Card or scanning of the Program App may be required instead. You may not redeem eCTM from more than one Triangle Rewards Account for the same transaction. You must have enrolled in the Program, or have activated your Program Credit Card, in order to redeem eCTM. What Happens When an Item is Returned. If you return an item for a refund and had received eCTM when you purchased such item, such amount of eCTM will be deducted from your Triangle Rewards Account. Merchandise that was purchased either in whole or in part by redeeming eCTM may not be returned for cash, rather, the connected Triangle Rewards Account will be credited with the same amount of eCTM used to make the original purchase. Expiration of Electronic Canadian Tire Money We may expire the eCTM in your Triangle Rewards Account in the event that there has been a period of inactivity of 18 months or more. For the purposes of this section, "inactivity" means that there has been neither a transaction in which you have collected eCTM, nor a transaction in which you have redeemed eCTM during the period in question.

Termination of Membership and Cancellation of the Program Membership may be terminated by Canadian Tire if any of the following events occur A the Member has failed to comply with any of these terms and conditions, or Canadian Tire determines that the Member has abused the Program or has made any misrepresentation or false statement to Canadian Tire; B the Member dies; C the Member becomes bankrupt or insolvent or any bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the Member, D the Member is charged with a “designated offence” as defined in the Criminal Code Canada, E the Member’s Program Payment Card is terminated by Canadian Tire Bank, or F Canadian Tire suspects the Member of any fraudulent activity in connection with the Program or the use of a Program Payment Card. A Member may choose to cancel his or her membership by written notice sent to the address below or by calling Program customer service. Termination or cancellation of membership in the Program will result in the immediate closing of the Member’s Triangle Rewards Account and the cancellation of all eCTM in such Triangle Rewards Account without any compensation or other liability to the Member.

Termination of a Member’s Triangle Rewards Account will also result in the Member no longer being able to use a Program Payment Card linked to the Program. Canadian Tire may, in its sole discretion and at any time without prior notice either i cancel the Program or ii except if you are a Member residing in Quebec, Ontario or such other province where prohibited by law, establish a date upon which eCTM will expire and may no longer be used. Merging Triangle Rewards Accounts At Canadian Tire’s discretion, Members may be able to merge their Triangle Rewards Accounts into a single account.
