Series of grammatic American textbooks and composition in Warrinerprimer English course up to fifth year; Full CourseAutorJohn E. WarrinerDisciplinagramics and Composition in English SPUBLICADADAHRCOURT BRACE JOVANOVIHPUBLIED1946Unumber of Book and Composition is a series of textbooks in Gramatic English and John E. Warriner composition, composed of six Books aimed at grades 6 to 12, in numerous editions, with publication from 1946. With the series still printed at the time of Warriner's death in 1987, Editor Harcourt Brace Jovanovich described it as Á «One of the series More sold in the history of the word book editing. », with more than 30 million copies sold [1]. The books of the series have been published in large letters, Braille, audiobooks and electronic books. [2] History John E. Warriner (c.1907-1987) obtained a bachelor's degree in English in 1930 at the University of Michigan, followed by a Master at Harvard. He then taught at the New Jersey State Teachers College, and later in Garden City High School. [3] In 1942 or 1943, Warriner was contacted by a sales representative of an editorial to review a Gramatic Book that dated 1898. Warriner began to write chapters for a new book, which was published by Harcourt Brace as Warrinerá € ¢ ¢ ¢ Handbook of English, directed to grades 9 and 10. This book was followed by a volume aimed at 11th and 12th grade students. In 1956, the series had grown to six books, covering grades 7 to 12. [3] Warriner retreated from the teaching in 1962, and spent the following years working at the Harcourt offices a few days a week, and traveling to promote the series. He reviewed the series for the last time in 1981. [3] References á ¢ ¢ ¢ Hudson, Edward (August 8, 1987). Á «John Warriner, author of textbooks." The New York Times.
