From "What Time Is It?" to "You Are the Music in Me," I still know every word—and I'm not even sorry. The plot? Thin as a poolside towel and twice as cliché. But who cares? It's summer, it's catchy, it's chaotic in the best way. Sharpay absolutely steals the show (as always)—the pink, the drama, the jazz hands, ICONIC. The songs are certified bangers, the vibes are immaculate, and honestly, I had a blast. It's not high art, but it's high school musical, baby. And sometimes, that's exactly enough. What time is it? Still awesome. Several plot points and character developments were abandoned for this sequel in favor of the plot. This movie also focuses more on Zach Efron's character, which follows the target demographic, but doesn't make for the best narrative. The music seems like a rehash of the previous movie and doesn't hit the same beats the first movie did so well. The choreography is on par in this film, just like the first. There is some enjoyment here if you are a fan of the first movie. Rated 2/5 Stars • Rated 2 out of 5 stars 07/07/24 Full Review BradLee B Better than the original, and definitely a perfect sequel! The film follows the story of a high school student who yearns to join a prestigious dance team and win the annual state championships. With an all-star cast that includes Zac Efron, Vanessa Hudgens, Ashley Tisdale, Corbin Bleu, Lucas Grabeel, and Monique Coleman (to name but a few), it is no wonder that this movie became such a big hit. On Rotten Tomatoes, the film has an 82% approval rating based on 22 reviews with an average rating of 5.8/10. "surprisingly superior to its predecessor," according to the High School Musical 2 website's reviewers. "High School Musical 2 returns to delight tweens with its quick melodies, wicked dance moves, and cheery attitude," receiving a weighted average score of 72 out of 100 from 23 reviewers. According to USA Today's Robert Bianco, who gave the film three out of four stars, High School Musical 2 is "lovely, smart, brimming with talent and energy, and drowning in innocence." The article noted that the timing of the film's release appeared odd, as it came just as school was about to resume. High School Musical 2 was awarded the "So Hot Right Now" prize at the Nickelodeon Australian Kids' Choice Awards in 2007, where castmate Zac Efron hosted with The Veronicas. According to many critiques, the musical numbers are incredibly catchy (perhaps too catchy for some!), the dialog is engaging and witty, and the characters are likable (or at least relatable). Although most of these elements have been done before by other films or TV shows (e.g., "Wicked"), High School Musical 2 still manages to be enjoyable thanks to its well-executed plotline and entertaining performances from its actors. Are you curious about the story of Null and his team? Then you need to pre-order your tickets now for critical responses to the Film! Filmed over 2 years, the film features never before seen footage from inside the studio. Do you remember all the excitement that came with watching High School Musical 2? If you're like most people, you probably remember all the catchy tunes, the relatable characters, and the overall feel-good factor. But did you know that the movie was based on a true story? In this article, we explore some of the lesser-known facts about High School Musical 2, and how they helped to make it one of the most beloved movies of all time. 1. The film was originally intended to be a sequel to High School Musical, but the idea was shelved in favor of making it a stand-alone movie. 2. Ashley Tisdale auditioned for the role of Sharpay Evans 10 times before getting the part. 3. Zac Efron declined an offer to star in the movie because he felt that his singing wasn't up to par yet. He also turned down another role because he didn't want people thinking he couldn't act either. 4. After working on location and filming throughout California, Florida, Arizona, and Texas for over two months, Disney spent an astonishing $25 million on production costs alone. This is more than any other Disney Channel Original Movie until 2017's Descendants 2 premiered with spending north of $40 million. 5. Kal Penn initially auditioned for Troy Bolton but lost out due to his accent (Penn is from West Indies). 6. The casting process for 'High School Musical 2' was extremely competitive - many young stars were passed over in favor of other, more experienced actors. 7. To film scenes where cast members lip-synched their songs live on stage, technicians set up two cameras simultaneously. So that whoever was singing could be seen by both crews filming simultaneously on stage left and right (the stage view effect). Read more: Where Was The Movie Tombstone Filmed?
