Drivers manual ny online

Online ny state driver's manual.

Having a procedure and online procedure manual allows any employee to view policies and procedures at any time without having to worry about recent updates. The compensation prevents printing different paper copies according to need for different departments. The first step is to write the policy and procedure manual and the next one is to create a free account with Google Docs, a web-based interface that allows a member to upload documents and share them with others. Then upload the document and set the authorization levels of those able to view the document. Open a new document in the Text Processing Software application. Outline briefly what content must be included in the policy and procedure manual. You can break down the manual by department and then for activities in each department. Make sure you include contact information for members of key personnel responsible for each department. Document format and correction. Save your work. Access the Internet and visit Google.docs.com. Create an account using an email address designated with a password that contains letters and numbers. Check your email for the confirmation e-mail from Google with information about your new account and click on the confirmation link in the e-mail to complete the account process. Register in your newly created account. Click on "Upload document" near the top of the menu choices on the left. A new window will appear with two sections in it. The left hand bar shows your desktop or files on your hard drive, depending on how it was set. Use the arrow icons at the top of the window to access where you saved the policy and procedure manual. Click the manual policy and procedure file to make it appear in the "Deputy document" in the toolbar above the manual. This will open another small box where you can enter the e-mail addresses of those you want to have permission to view or change the document. Unless your supervisor told you differently, choose "View" for now. When you click "invite" will send a new email to those you listed to let you know that it is a new document that can view. You now have a complete online and manual procedure policy. Suggestions You can customize the settings Playing with authorization and notification levels. If you want, Google Docs can inform those you invite whenever a change is made to the document. This allows your colleagues know that there is one Updated version to view. Alternatively, Google Docs also provides a link from the main page to share the document as a permanent web link, which could make it easier to distribute to large amounts of people and may delete you need to update the levels of permissions on a daily basis. Warnings Do not share the Google Docs password with anyone you don't want to have access to make changes to your account. Instructions It's a community for people who like to do things.
