Blades in the dark character sheet fillable

Wow! I finally had the chance to browse your session notes @Armando Penblade. Iâ€™m in awe. They contain everything that is advertised and are fun to read too. Thanks for sharing and the time to explain. I ve got a much better idea of what I want to record now. For those who might wish to run a classic low-level (and fairly short) D&D adventure between now and mid-May, WoTC has made the Citadel without Sun free until then: twitter. com I remember being tempted by Tales from the Yawning Portal especially for that as an introductory story. The Citadel Without Sun is a good adventure. I looked it up for my colleagues in 2000 when 3E came out. Everyone, novice to veteran, had fun. I'm glad to hear it, man. Please continue to share your adventures in the game, including here! I love this damn hobby
